

Staff Development Nurse Palliative Care Unit Part Time (3 days/week) (Clinical Nurse Level 2)

As part of our continual organisational growth and expansion, Bethesda Health Care, with an enviable reputation for personalised and high-quality patient care, is seeking applications from experienced Staff Development Nurses to join our Learning and Development team in the role of Staff Development Nurse – Palliative Care

About the role

Reporting to and working collaboratively with the Learning and Development Manager, you will be responsible for meeting agreed targets for staff learning and development in Palliative care and for contributing to the achievement of overall strategic objectives of the organisation as they relate to both education and staff development. The role requires a sound knowledge of contemporary palliative care practices and an ability to be flexible in approach to the different learning styles and needs of the team.

You will also have involvement in the development and review of Clinical Practice Standards, Hospital Policies and Quality Improvement Programs within Learning and Development as they pertain to Palliative Care nursing.

About you

You will have worked in Palliative care and have relevant, recent experience as a Staff Development Nurse. Your can-do attitude, passion for education and drive to see success in others will motivate staff to be the best they can. This role would suit a practitioner seeking change and an opportunity to be involved and steer the direction of Palliative Care education in an organisation experiencing growth. Start and finish times may be negotiated to suit personal commitments.

What you need

- The ability to demonstrate and work within the Bethesda Health Care Values at all times
- Registered Nurse qualification and AHPRA registration
- Current Police Check (no more than 6 months old)
- Full working rights in Australia
- Experience in staff development and training
- Excellent facilitation and presentation skills which demonstrate an awareness of adult learning principals
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively in teams with advanced written and verbal communication, organisation and time management skills
- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or similar qualification preferred
- Experience in the development and facilitation of a Graduate Nurse program desirable
