

Social Worker – Palliative Care Part-time

This is an exciting opportunity for a highly motivated palliative care social worker to move into a newly established role working to build the capacity of residential care facilities across eastern metropolitan Perth to provide quality care at the end of life to residents and family carers.

To be successful, you will be able to demonstrate and model:

- expert psycho-social-spiritual assessment of residents approaching the end of life, and their family carers
- professional behaviours in end of life care, including communications, boundaries, dealing with conflict, self-care and advocacy
- the skills to facilitate staff debrief, support facility link teams, and promote positive self-care
- a commitment to excellence in person-centred care delivery
- the ability to work autonomously in a dedicated interdisciplinary specialist team
- superior problem solving and relationship building capabilities.

The MPaCCS team is based in South Perth, with service delivery to over 200 RACFs throughout the metropolitan area.

This position is offered on a fixed-term basis (as agreed with the WA Department of Health).

Essential criteria:

- minimum of 3 years social work experience in aged care or palliative care
- a recognised social work qualification
- current police check (no more than 6 months old)
- current WA drivers license.

Employee benefits include:

- friendly and modern working environment
- attractive remuneration commensurate with public sector rates
- enhanced salary packaging benefits
- car (provided for work purposes only, with home garaging).
